“So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.”
Isaiah 55:11,12.

Twenty-Second Decree: Repairing the Breach NOW

“To restore in man the image of his Maker, to bring him back to the perfection in which he was created, to promote the development of body, mind, and soul, that the divine purpose in his creation might be realized—this was to be the work of redemption.

This is the object of education, the great object of life.” Education, 15.

Repairing the Breach

“Be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition.” 2 Thessalonians 2:2, 3.

Twenty-Second Decree: Repairing the Breach NOW

I. What is the Falling Away?

“The man of sin was to arise, and do his work of exaltation and blasphemy, before the brethren could look for the coming of Christ. That great event was to be preceded by a falling away. There would be revealed a form of Antichrist, and the leaven of apostasy was to work with increasing power to the end of time.”
The Review and Herald, July 31, 1888.

1. “There is one pointed out in prophecy as the man of sin. He is the representative of Satan. Taking the suggestions of Satan concerning the law of God, which is as unchangeable as His throne, this man of sin comes in and represents to the world that he has changed that law,

2. and that the first day of the week instead of the seventh is now the Sabbath. Professing infallibility, he claims the right to change the law of God to suit his own purposes. By so doing, he exalts himself above God, and leaves the world to infer that God is fallible. If it were indeed true that God had made a rule of government that needed to be changed, it would certainly show fallibility. But Christ declared that not one jot or tittle of the law should fail until heaven and earth should pass away.

3. The very work that He came to do was to exalt that law, and show to the created worlds and to heaven that God is just, and that His law need not be changed.

4. But here is Satan’s right-hand man ready to carry on the work that Satan commenced in heaven, that of trying to amend the law of God. And the Christian world has sanctioned his efforts by adopting this child of the Papacy—the Sunday institution.

They have nourished it, and will continue to nourish it, until Protestantism shall give the hand of fellowship to the Roman power. Then there will be a law against the Sabbath of God’s creation, and then it is that God will do His “strange work” in the earth.”

Observations – AD 538 to 1798 or 1260 Years

- Under the Dark Era of the Roman Catholic Church and State governance from AD 538 to 1798, and though there were strict and lethal consequences for anyone who disobeyed the RCC and her heretic dogmas, feasts, Sunday laws, the Creator/Redeemer always had Reformers and major Movements which shook the totalitarian governments in place.
- During the First Papal Supremacy, Biblical Truths, True Education, True Worship and the Health Message were upheld though often underground. This in itself should give us hope and courage today to maintain these Eternal Truths.

Observations – From 1798 to 1900

After the wound was inflicted to the beast of Revelation 13, in 1798, other Movements arose to attempt to repair the breaches made to the Biblical Truths, the Calendar, Worship Time, True Education and the Health Message.

It is interesting to notice that from 1820 to the time of Senator Blair in 1889 and his Sunday Law Legislation which was defeated by A. T. Jones, some Movements, as the one under William Miller, had been set in motion to repair the breach made in True Education. Elder Sutherland in his book 'Mental Arithmetic' page 2, relates this fact:

“In her greed for worldly gain, Rome stamped everything with the impress of commercialism. Her arithmetic, with all things else, received this seal of the state. Most of the text-books of to-day bear heavily along this same line, to the exclusion of other and equally practical material. Horace Mann, with the aid of Pliny E. Chase, about 1840, attempted a reform in the arithmetical work of the schools.”

Twenty-Second Decree: Repairing the Breach NOW

Continuing from 'Mental Arithmetic, Elder Sutherland notes:

“The Conference on Mathematics appointed by the “Committee of Ten”* recommended “that the course in arithmetic be at the same time abridged and enriched; abridged by omitting entirely those subjects which perplex and exhaust the pupil, without affording, any really valuable mental discipline; and enriched by a greater number of exercises in simple calculations, and in the solution of concrete problems. This shows a demand for a reformation....

* The National Educational Association that met at Saratoga in July, 1892, appointed the “Committee of Ten.”

....Why is a change necessary? “In the arithmetic of the past are mirrored the methods of instruction that prevailed in that time,” and true it is that in the history of arithmetic may be traced the story of national progress.

This close relationship between the arithmetic and the people is especially noticeable in Roman history, and it is because of the mold which was given to the subject by that nation, and which has been too closely adhered to since, that makes the change now necessary.” Ibid., 2.

Which begs the questions: If after the fall of the First Papal Supremacy, arithmetic was declared to have been literally impregnated with the mold of the Roman Catholic Church, what of Bible Truth, Sanctuary, Biblical Calendar, Prophecy, Health Message and True Education?

What about the Papal Global Compact on Education 2020-2030? Are we ready to counteract it?

The Roman Catholic Church Showed Her Pagan Roots: Babel Tower – Unity

“Unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.” Exodus 20:5; Gen. 15:16 [1800 – 1960 – Vatican II – 4th generation]

What Went Wrong With Vatican II: The Catholic Crisis Explained

“Vatican II was supposed to herald a Golden Age in the Catholic Church yet in the [60] years since it ended, chaos and dissension have rocked the pulpits and emptied the pews. Today, theologians rise against the Pope, laymen turn away in dismay and confusion....

After Vatican II, instead of enjoying the expected renaissance, the Church seemed to fall apart: priests and bishops rejected Church teachings, convents and seminaries emptied, and laypeople were thrown into confusion.” <https://www.amazon.com/What-Went-Wrong-Vatican-Explained/dp/0918477794>

“Second Vatican Council, also called Vatican II, (1962–65), 21st ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church, announced by Pope John XXIII on January 25, 1959, as a means of spiritual renewal for the church and as an occasion for Christians separated from Rome to join in a search for Christian unity.”

“This council represents a major event in the life of the Church of the 20th century, and for this reason it constitutes a fundamental era in universal history.”

Vatican II has not failed. ‘It does indeed constitute a fundamental era in universal history.’ Looking back 60 years, the ecumenical council did bring chaos, dissension, dismay and confusion in the Roman Catholic Church. But it was indeed a PLANNED ‘silent revolution’ – a falling away – for the Roman Catholic Church, the Protestant and Orthodox Churches. No blood was shed but souls were lost!

This perspective on the past in which understanding has been gained and which was unavailable to the observer at the time in question, can now be declared a success for the RCC: her ECUMENICAL goal has been achieved (1960 – 2020) – Next Step?

The Roman Catholic Church Showing Her Pagan Roots: Images – Idolatry

“Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them.”

The second commandment forbids the worship of the true God by images or similitudes. Many heathen nations claimed that their images were mere figures or symbols by which the Deity was worshiped, but God has declared such worship to be sin. The attempt to represent the Eternal One by material objects would lower man’s conception of God. The mind, turned away from the infinite perfection of Jehovah, would be attracted to the creature rather than to the Creator. And as his conceptions of God were lowered, so would man become degraded.

“I the Lord thy God am a jealous God.” The close and sacred relation of God to His people is represented under the figure of marriage. Idolatry being spiritual adultery, the displeasure of God against it is fitly called jealousy.”
Patriarchs and Prophets, 306.

“The Lord urges His supremacy. But Satan well knows that the worship of the living God elevates, ennobles, and exalts a nation. He knows that idol-worship does not elevate, but that it degrades man’s ideas, by associating with worship that which is base and corrupt. He is at work constantly to draw the mind away from the only true and living God.

He leads men to give honor and glory to objects that human hands have made or to soulless creatures that God has created.... The Egyptians and other heathen nations had many strange gods—creatures of their own fanciful imagination.

The Jews, after their long captivity, would not make any image. The image on the Roman ensign or banner, they called an abomination, especially when these emblems were placed in a prominent place for them to respect. Such respect they regarded as a violation of the second commandment. When the Roman ensign was set up in the holy place in the temple, they looked upon it as an abomination.” Ms126, 1901, par. 16-18

Watch for the Abomination – The IMAGE

The Garb of GLOBAL Education and Worship

Global Compact on Education 2020-2030

“Education – a seed of hope”

“The Compact [2020-2030], sponsored by the Congregation for Catholic Education, is meant to encourage change on a global scale, so that education may become a creator of fraternity, peace, and justice. According to the Pope, the pact is “to ensure that everyone has access to a quality education consonant with the dignity of the human person and our common vocation to fraternity.”

This is the object of Education, the great object of life.” Education, 15.

Just like she did under her First Supremacy, the RCC is attempting one more time to literally impregnate everyone on a global scale with the mold of her False Education. And since Education and Worship are one, the United States of America, the image of the beast, according to Revelation 13:11-15 “should both speak [legislation of Sunday worship], and cause [use of civil power] that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.”
A falling away mixed with bloodshed, revolutions, wars.
