“The Judgment was set, and the books were opened.” Daniel 7:10

The judgment has set, the books have been opened;
How shall we stand in that great day,
When every thought, and word, and action,
God, the righteous Judge, shall weigh?

Refrain

How shall we stand in that great day?
How shall we stand in that great day?
Shall we be found before Him wanting?
Or with our sins all washed away?

The work is begun with those who are sleeping,
Soon will the living here be tried,
Out of the books of God's remembrance,
His decision to abide.

Refrain

The Judgment Has Set
Franklin Edison Belden, 1886

1. The judgment has set, the books have been opened; How shall we stand in that great day? When every thought, and word, and action, God, the righteous Judge, shall weigh?
2. The work is begun with those who are sleeping, Soon will the living here be tried, Out of the books of God's remembrance, His decision to abide.
3. O, how shall we stand that moment of searching, When all our sins those books reveal? When from that court, each case decided, Shall be granted no appeal?

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John.” Revelation 1:1

“The Judgment was set, and the books were opened ” Daniel 7:10

1. The Books of Daniel and the Revelation are One

“The books of Daniel and the Revelation are One. One is a prophecy, the other a revelation; one a book sealed, the other a book opened.” 7 BC 971

“The study of the Revelation directs the mind to the prophecies of Daniel, and both present most important instruction, given of God to men, concerning events to take place at the close of this world’s history.

To John were opened scenes of deep and thrilling interest in the experience of the church. He saw the position, dangers, conflicts, and final deliverance of the people of God. He records the closing messages which are to ripen the harvest of the earth, either as sheaves [Revelation 14:14 - 20] for the heavenly garner or as fagots for the fires of the last day of destruction.”
The Great Controversy, 341.
