

Chapter 8

- The Ram from the East
- The He Goat from the West
- Daniel 8:1 - 8; 15 - 24

Historical Application of Daniel 8:1-7; 20, 21

“In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar....

I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power....And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns....And there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand....

The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.”

Very Important Details from Daniel Chapter 8 verses 1 and 2:
The Province of Elam by the river of Ulai

“In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar.... I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.” Daniel 8:1, 2

“The light that Daniel received direct from God was given especially for these last days. The visions he saw by the banks of the Ulai [Chapter 8] and the Hiddekel [Chapters 10 to 12], the great rivers of Shinar, are now in process of fulfillment, and all the events foretold will soon have come to pass.” E. G. White, Letter 57, 1896

❑ “A Storm is Coming Relentless in its Fury”

❑ “Are we prepared to meet it? We need not say: The perils of the last days are soon to come upon us. Already they have come. We need now the sword of the Lord to cut to the very soul and marrow of fleshly lusts, appetites, and passions.

❑ We have no time to lose. We know not how soon our probation may close. Eternity stretches before us. The curtain is about to be lifted. Christ is soon to come. The angels of God are seeking to attract us from ourselves and from earthly things. Let them not labor in vain.

❑ When Jesus rises up in the most holy place, lays off His mediatorial robes, and clothes Himself with the garments of vengeance, the mandate will go forth: “He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: ...and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still.... And, behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Revelation 22:11, 12.” 8T 314 – 315, 1904.

❑ “And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows.” Matthew 24:6 - 8
