

Eight Decree: Thy Kingdom Come

“And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

Daniel 7:14.

❑ Satan Asked Christ to Worship him

“Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.”
Matthew 4:8-11.

❑ He will ask the saints to worship him

“And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?.... And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.” Revelation 13:4, 7.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

“From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord’s name is to be praised.” Psalm 113:3. “In that day shall there be one Lord, and His name one.” “And Jehovah shall be king over all the earth.” Zechariah 14:9. Says the Scripture, “Forever, O Lord, Thy word is settled in heaven.”

“All His commandments are sure. They stand fast forever and ever.” Psalm 119:89; 111:7, 8.” Patriarchs and Prophets, 342.

❑ Creator's Government - Theocracy

"Every nation has its laws, which command respect and obedience; no government could exist without them; and can it be conceived that the Creator of the heavens and the earth has no law to govern the beings he has made? Suppose that prominent ministers were publicly to teach that the statutes which govern their land and protect the rights of its citizens were not obligatory, - that they restricted the liberties of the people, and therefore ought not to be obeyed; how long would such men be tolerated in the pulpit? But is it a graver offense to disregard the laws of states and nations than to trample upon those divine precepts which are the foundations of all government?" The Great Controversy, p. 584.

"The sacred statutes which Satan has hated and sought to destroy, will be honored throughout a sinless universe."
Patriarchs and Prophets, 342.

"The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward." Psalm 19:7-11.

❑ New World Order
Modern Towers of Babel

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north.” Isaiah 14:13.

“And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.”
Genesis 11:4-8.

New World Order
Modern Tower of Babel

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north.” Isaiah 14:13.

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a city street intersection at night. The scene is illuminated by streetlights and the lights from tall buildings. Long, colorful light trails from cars are visible on the road, creating a sense of motion. The buildings have many lit windows, and some have distinctive architectural features like yellow diamond patterns. A yellow taxi is visible in the lower part of the frame. The overall atmosphere is urban and dynamic.

“I saw the rapidity with which this delusion was spreading. A train of cars was shown me, going with the speed of lightning. The angel bade me look carefully. I fixed my eyes upon the train. It seemed that the whole world was on board, that there could not be one left. Said the angel, “They are binding in bundles ready to burn.” Then he showed me the conductor, who appeared like a stately, fair person, whom all the passengers looked up to and revered. I was perplexed and asked my attending angel who it was. He said, “It is Satan. He is the conductor in the form of an angel of light. He has taken the world captive. They are given over to strong delusions, to believe a lie, that they may be damned. This agent, the next highest in order to him, is the engineer, and other of his agents are employed in different offices as he may need them, and they are all going with lightning speed to perdition.” Early Writings, 88.

A photograph of a suspension bridge stretching across a deep, forested valley. The bridge has a wooden deck and metal railings. The surrounding landscape is misty and filled with evergreen trees. The sky is overcast. A semi-transparent text box is overlaid on the left side of the image.

“I asked the angel if there were none left. He bade me look in an opposite direction, and I saw a little company traveling a narrow pathway. All seemed to be firmly united, bound together by the truth, in bundles, or companies.

Said the angel, “The third angel is binding, or sealing, them in bundles for the heavenly garner.” This little company looked careworn, as if they had passed through severe trials and conflicts. And it appeared as if the sun had just risen from behind a cloud and shone upon their countenances, causing them to look triumphant, as if their victories were nearly won.” Early Writings, 88.

Israel – Asked for a king after their own heart!

“In Saul, God had given to Israel a king after their own heart, as Samuel said when the kingdom was confirmed to Saul at Gilgal, “Behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired.” 1 Samuel 12:13.

Comely in person, of noble stature and princely bearing, his appearance accorded with their conceptions of royal dignity; and his personal valor and his ability in the conduct of armies were the qualities which they regarded as best calculated to secure respect and honor from other nations. They felt little solicitude that their king should possess those higher qualities which alone could fit him to rule with justice and equity.

They did not ask for one who had true nobility of character, who possessed the love and fear of God. They had not sought counsel from God as to the qualities a ruler should possess, in order to preserve their distinctive, holy character as His chosen people.

They were not seeking God’s way, but their own way. Therefore God gave them such a king as they desired —one whose character was a reflection of their own. Their hearts were not in submission to God, and their king also was unsubdued by divine grace. Under the rule of this king they would obtain the experience necessary in order that they might see their error, and return to their allegiance to God.” Patriarchs and Prophets, 636.

“But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.” John 19:12.

“Then saith he [Christ] unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.” Matthew 22:21.

☐ Astronomy – Astrology – Cultural Astronomy

“The words astronomy and astrology have distinct meanings in the modern world:

- Astronomy is the scientific study of the physical universe. [It is an applied science.]
- Astrology is the practice of relating heavenly bodies to lives and events on earth.

Cultural Astronomy is the study of the application of beliefs about the stars to all aspects of human culture. It includes the new discipline of archaeo-astronomy: the study of astronomical alignments, orientation and symbolisms in ancient and modern architecture.

Astrology also exists in some form in most cultures. [MA-this course] examine the relationship between astrological, astronomical and cosmological beliefs and practices, and society, politics, religion and the arts, past and present.”

☐ Why Cultural Astronomy and Astrology?

“We are all creatures of the universe: every atom in our bodies has passed through three stars – we are literally star dust. For thousands of years human beings have speculated about their physical, emotional and psychic connections with the sky, stars and planets, and the results manifest across beliefs and behaviour, from spirituality and the sacred to creativity and the arts, and from politics to architecture.

Cultural Astronomy and Astrology (MA) is the only academic degree in the world to examine our relationship with the cosmos. The program draws on different disciplines from the Humanities in order to gain as full a view as possible of the entire subject. Through history, we look to the past, and through anthropology, we study the present. We also draw on archaeology, sociology, philosophy and the study of religions.”
Ibid.

Nicholas Champion is a British astrologer and historian of astrology and cultural astronomy. He is the program director of the MA programs in Cultural Astronomy and Astrology, and Ecology and Spirituality, at the University of Wales Trinity Saint David. - Champion worked with G. Coyne, Jesuit, Director of Vatican Observatory.

“The universe is filled with billions of galaxies and trillions of stars, along with nearly uncountable numbers of planets, moons, asteroids, comets and clouds of dust and gas – all swirling in the vastness of space.

But if we zoom in, what are the building blocks of these celestial bodies, and where did they come from?

Hydrogen is the most common element found in the universe, followed by helium; together, they make up nearly all ordinary matter. But this accounts for only a tiny slice of the universe — about 5%. All the rest is made of [elements] that can't be seen and can only be detected indirectly....

Every bit of matter that makes up all the known elements in the periodic table — and every object in the universe, from black holes to massive stars to specks of space dust — was created during the Big Bang, said Neta Bahcall, a professor of astronomy in the Department of Astrophysical Sciences at Princeton University in New Jersey.”

<https://www.livescience.com/what-is-the-universe-made-of.html>

Every object in the universe, from black holes to massive stars to specks of space dust — were created by the One who declared: “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” Genesis 1:1.

Every atom in our bodies has been created by the Creator of the Universe. David declares: “My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.”

Psalm 139:15, 16.

View of all the Points of Creation: Chemistry

Every object in the universe, from black holes to massive stars to specks of space dust — were created by the One who declared: “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” Genesis 1:1.

Periodic Table of the Elements

Meteorites found on earth, lunar samples, and cosmic rays are the few pieces of the Universe in which the elements can be directly separated and measured chemically.

One process that alters the composition we might expect from cosmic events discussed above is radioactive decay. The processes already discussed produce all the natural elements, through plutonium Pu on the periodic chart. However, the amounts of these elements in nature cannot be entirely explained by those processes. Lead Pb in particular, is much more abundant than expected, if it is only produced in supernova explosions. What else could make lead, and how?

The explosive power of supernovae also creates radioactive isotopes of a number of elements. These isotopes, such as <sup>56</sup>Ni, <sup>22</sup>Na, <sup>44</sup>Ti, <sup>27</sup>Al, decay into <sup>56</sup>Fe, <sup>22</sup>Ne, <sup>44</sup>Ca, and <sup>27</sup>Mg, respectively. This decay is accompanied by emission of gamma rays.

Each of these elements decays on a different time scale.... By watching the light intensity from a fading supernova, astronomers can detect these time scales and determine the abundances of these elements. By observing the gamma ray lines with gamma ray observatories such as the European INTEGRAL mission, astronomers can study the sites of this element formation, the rate at which the formation occurs, and compare that with models of element formation from supernovae.”

“The composition of matter is usually determined via spectroscopy. Each element gives off a unique signature of specific wavelengths of light, which are observed as bright lines in its spectrum. By measuring the relative intensities of these "emission lines" from different elements, it is possible to determine the relative abundances of the elements.

When interstellar gas absorbs light, we see absorption lines, evidenced as dark lines in the spectrum. These lines can be used to tell us the composition of the gas cloud. The spectrum of a star shows the elements in the star's outer layers. The spectrum of a planet shows the elements on its surface and in its atmosphere.... <https://imagine.gsfc.nasa.gov/educators/elements/imagine/08.html>

View of all the Points of Creation – Biochemistry

The Human body was created by the One who declared: “And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.” Genesis 2:7 – From the dust of the earth made new and from the same dust where He planted the garden for Adam and Eve to live in – Eden – Garden of Delight – Sabbath – Delight “Almost 99% of the mass of the human body is made up of six elements: oxygen, carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen, calcium, and phosphorus. Only about 0.85% is composed of another five elements: potassium, sulfur, sodium, chlorine, and magnesium. All 11 are necessary for life.

The remaining elements are trace elements, of which more than a dozen are thought on the basis of good evidence to be necessary for life. All of the mass of the trace elements put together (less than 10 grams for a human body) do not add up to the body mass of magnesium, the least common of the 11 non-trace elements.”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Composition\_of\_the\_human\_body#:~:text=Almost%2099%25%20of%20the%20mass,11%20are%20necessary%20for%20life.

The image shows a standard periodic table with elements color-coded by groups. Hydrogen (H) is highlighted in green. The table includes element symbols, atomic numbers, and names. The legend indicates that the color of the element box corresponds to its group: 1 (Hydrogen), 2 (Helium), 3-10 (Transition Metals), 11-18 (Main Group Elements), and 19-10 (Lanthanides and Actinides).

“The average 70 kg (150 lb) adult human body contains approximately  $7 \times 10^{27}$  atoms and contains at least detectable traces of 60 chemical elements. About 29 of these elements are thought to play an active positive role in life and health in humans.” Ibid.

Points of View of Evolution – Superstitions – Paganism

S. “We are all creatures of the universe: every atom in our bodies has passed through three stars. S – Statement --- E – Explanation
https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/ma-cultural-astronomy-astrology/#:~:text=Cultural%20Astronomy%20and%20Astrology%20\(MA\)%20is%20a%20unique%20course%20which,basis%20for%20culture%20and%20society%20is%20a%20unique%20course%20which,basis%20for%20culture%20and%20society)

E. “The Sanxing (三星 "Three Stars") are the gods of the three stars or constellations considered essential in Chinese astrology and mythology: Jupiter, Ursa Major, and Canopus.”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sanxing\_\(deities\))

S. “We are literally star dust.” Ibid.

E. “So most of the material that we're made of comes out of dying stars, or stars that died in explosions. And those stellar explosions continue. We have stuff in us as old as the universe, and then some stuff that landed here maybe only a hundred years ago. And all of that mixes in our bodies.”

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/news/2015/01/150128-big-bang-universe-supernova-astrophysics-health-space-ngbooktalk/>

S. “The LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground [from the earth made new].” Genesis 2:7.

E. Scientifically, ALL the Universe is made of the Elements of the Periodic Table, including planets, comets, stars and human beings. Thus, star dust contains elements of the Periodic Table as confirmed by NASA: - see Slide 14 – <https://imagine.gsfc.nasa.gov/educators/elements/imagine/08.html>

The human body is made of elements of the Periodic Table as all planets, comets, stars, etc. But it cannot be declared that we are made of star dust and fallen on the earth. We are made by the Creator from the dust of the earth made new and where He planted Eden! Our DNA longs for Eden and our Creator every day!

Anatomy of Matter – Atoms – Elements

“That which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.”

1 Corinthians 15:37-52.

“Our personal identity is preserved in the resurrection, though not the same particle of matter or material substance as went into the grave. The wondrous work of God is mystery to man.” MS 76, 1900.

■ Ultimate Purpose of True Education

- To restore in man the image of his Maker.
- To bring him back to the perfection in which he was created.
- To promote the development of body, mind, and soul, that the divine purpose in his creation might be realized.
- This was to be the work of redemption.
- This is the object of education.
- The great object of life.” Education, 15

■ Vatican Compact on Education The path to the Global Compact on Education

“Educating young people to the fraternity, to learn to overcome divisions and conflicts, promote hospitality, justice and peace: Pope Francis invites everyone who cares about the education of the young generation to sign a Global Pact, to create a global change of mentality through the education.

The path is begun. Many schools, catholic universities and not, are already deepening the anthropological, communicative, cultural, economic, generational, interreligious, pedagogic and social dimension of this Global Pact.”

An aerial photograph of a city skyline at sunset. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, and the sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the buildings. The city is densely packed with skyscrapers of various heights and architectural styles. The water of a bay or harbor is visible in the lower left corner, with a few boats and a small island. The overall atmosphere is one of a bustling, modern metropolis during the "golden hour" of the day.

The world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis

“The present is a time of overwhelming interest to all living. Rulers and statesmen, men who occupy positions of trust and authority, thinking men and women of all classes, have their attention fixed upon the events taking place about us. They are watching the strained, restless relations that exist among the nations.

They observe the intensity that is taking possession of every earthly element, and they recognize that something great and decisive is about to take place—that the world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis.”

❑ No More Probation for Rebellious Israel – 70AD

“The Jews had forged their own fetters; they had filled for themselves the cup of vengeance. In the utter destruction that befell them as a nation, and in all the woes that followed them in their dispersion, they were but reaping the harvest which their own hands had sown. Says the prophet, “O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself;” “for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.” Hosea 13:9; 14:1.

Their sufferings are often represented as a punishment visited upon them by the direct decree of God. It is thus that the great deceiver seeks to conceal his own work. By stubborn rejection of divine love and mercy, the Jews had caused the protection of God to be withdrawn from them, and Satan was permitted to rule them according to his will. The horrible cruelties enacted in the destruction of Jerusalem are a demonstration of Satan’s vindictive power over those who yield to his control.

We cannot know how much we owe to Christ for the peace and protection which we enjoy. It is the restraining power of God that prevents mankind from passing fully under the control of Satan. The disobedient and unthankful have great reason for gratitude for God’s mercy and long-suffering in holding in check the cruel, malignant power of the evil one.

But when men pass the limits of divine forbearance, that restraint is removed. God does not stand toward the sinner as an executioner of the sentence against transgression; but he leaves the rejecters of his mercy to themselves, to reap that which they have sown. Every ray of light rejected, every warning despised or unheeded, every passion indulged, every transgression of the law of God, is a seed sown, which yields its unfailing harvest....

❑ A Solemn Warning

The Spirit of God, persistently resisted, is at last withdrawn from the sinner, and then there is left no power to control the evil passions of the soul, and no protection from the malice and enmity of Satan.

The destruction of Jerusalem is a fearful and solemn warning to all who are trifling with the offers of divine grace, and resisting the pleadings of divine mercy.

Never was there given a more decisive testimony to God’s hatred of sin, and to the certain punishment that will fall upon the guilty.”

The Great Controversy, 38, 1888.

☐ Soon Probation will Close!

“The Saviour’s prophecy concerning the visitation of judgments upon Jerusalem is to have another fulfillment, of which that terrible desolation was but a faint shadow. In the fate of the chosen city we may behold the doom of a world that has rejected God’s mercy and trampled upon his law. Dark are the records of human misery that earth has witnessed during its long centuries of crime. The heart sickens and the mind grows faint in contemplation. Terrible have been the results of rejecting the authority of Heaven.

But a scene yet darker is presented in the revelations of the future. The records of the past,—the long procession of tumults, conflicts, and revolutions, the “battle of the warrior, with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood,” Isaiah 9:5—what are these, in contrast with the terrors of that day when the restraining Spirit of God shall be wholly withdrawn from the wicked, no longer to hold in check the outburst of human passion and Satanic wrath! The world will then behold, as never before, the results of Satan’s rule.”

☐ Words of Hope and Comfort

“At all times and in all places, in all sorrows and in all afflictions, when the outlook seems dark and the future perplexing, and we feel helpless and alone, the Comforter will be sent in answer to the prayer of faith.

Circumstances may separate us from every earthly friend; but no circumstance, no distance, can separate us from the heavenly Comforter. Wherever we are, wherever we may go, He is always at our right hand to support, sustain, uphold, and cheer.” Desire of Ages, 669.

“Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.” Ezekiel 28:15-18.

“For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.”

2 Corinthians 4:6-9.

Get Ready! Get Ready! Get Ready!

Get Ready! Get Ready!
Get Ready!

“The world is no more ready to credit the message for this time than were the Jews to receive the Saviour’s warning concerning Jerusalem. Come when it may, the day of God will come unawares to the ungodly.

When life is going on in its unvarying round; when men are absorbed in pleasure, in business, in traffic, in money-making; when religious leaders are magnifying the world’s progress and enlightenment, and the people are lulled in a false security, —then, as the midnight thief steals within the unguarded dwelling, so shall sudden destruction come upon the careless and ungodly, “and they shall not escape.” 1 Thessalonians 5:2-5.”
The Great Controversy, 38, 1888.

Eight Decree: Thy Kingdom Come

“I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

Daniel 7:13,14

– Day Of Atonement – October 22,1844

Papal Supremacy I – 1260 years – 538-1798

“And he [Little Horn – the Beast – Papacy – Lucifer] shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.” Daniel 7:25-27.
