

WORLD WAR I

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars.” Matthew 24:6.

“We may have to remain here in this world because of insubordination many more years, as did the children of Israel; but for Christ’s sake, His people should not add sin to sin by charging God with the consequence of their own wrong course of action.” Evangelism, 696.

“We are near the close of time. I have been shown that the retributive judgments of God are already in the land. The Lord has given us warning of the events about to take place. Light is shining from His word; yet darkness covers the earth, and gross darkness the people.

“When they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them; ... and they shall not escape.”
Counsels for the Church, 336.

“The Lord is removing His restrictions from the earth, and soon there will be death and destruction, increasing crime, and cruel, evil working against the rich who have exalted themselves against the poor.

Those who are without God’s protection will find no safety in any place or position. Human agents are being trained and are using their inventive power to put in operation the most powerful machinery to wound and to kill.”
Counsels for the Church, 336.

“In 1890, when the world declared that there would be no more war and the millennium was about to dawn, Ellen White wrote:

“The tempest is coming, and we must get ready for its fury.... We shall see trouble on all sides. Thousands of ships will be hurled into the depths of the sea. Navies will go down, and human lives will be sacrificed by millions.”

This was fulfilled in World Wars I and II.” Counsels for the Church, 29.8, Appendix.

“The coming of the Lord is nearer than when we first believed. The great controversy is nearing its end. Every report of calamity by sea or land is a testimony to the fact that the end of all things is at hand. Wars and rumors of wars declare it.

Is there a Christian whose pulse does not beat with quickened action as he anticipates the great events opening before us?”
Evangelism, 219.
