

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall Be Signs

Verily I Say Unto You

“And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?” Matthew 24:2, 3.

Signs of the End of the World Matthew 24:5-8

- Beginning of Sorrows
- “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. V. 5
- And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. V. 6
- For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. V. 7
- And there shall be famines. V. 7
- And pestilences. V.7
- And earthquakes, in divers places. V. 7
- All these are the beginning of sorrows.” V. 8

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“The Saviour’s prophecy concerning the visitation of judgments upon Jerusalem is to have another fulfillment, of which that terrible desolation was but a faint shadow. In the fate of the chosen city we may behold the doom of a world that has rejected God’s mercy and trampled upon His law. Dark are the records of human misery that earth has witnessed during its long centuries of crime. The heart sickens, and the mind grows faint in contemplation. Terrible have been the results of rejecting the authority of Heaven....

Signs of the End of the World Matthew 24:5-8

...But a scene yet darker is presented in the revelations of the future. The records of the past,—the long procession of tumults, conflicts, and revolutions, the “battle of the warrior ... with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood” (Isaiah 9:5),—what are these, in contrast with the terrors of that day when the restraining Spirit of God shall be wholly withdrawn from the wicked, no longer to hold in check the outburst of human passion and satanic wrath! The world will then behold, as never before, the results of Satan’s rule.”
The Great Controversy, 36.

The listed nations comprise 260 million Christians suffering high to severe levels of persecution, up from 245 million in last year's list.

Where It's Hardest to Follow Jesus:

1. North Korea
2. Afghanistan
3. Somalia
4. Libya
5. Pakistan
6. Eritrea
7. Sudan
8. Yemen
9. Iran
10. India

Persecutions - Betrayals

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. V. 9

And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. V. 10

And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. V. 11

And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. V. 12

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. V. 13

“The Christian persecution we read about in Scripture and history books is not a thing of the past. It still exists. Today, in the 21st century, we are living in a time when persecution against Christian believers is the highest in modern history.”

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“The gospel message proclaimed by Christ’s disciples was the announcement of His first advent to the world. It bore to men the good tidings of salvation through faith in Him. It pointed forward to His second coming in glory to redeem His people, and it set before men the hope, through faith and obedience, of sharing the inheritance of the saints in light. This message is given to men today, and at this time there is coupled with it the announcement of Christ’s second coming as at hand. The signs which He Himself gave of His coming have been fulfilled, and by the teaching of God’s word we may know that the Lord is at the door.

John in the Revelation foretells the proclamation of the gospel message just before Christ’s second coming. Revelation 14:6, 7.... In the prophecy this warning of the judgment, with its connected messages, is followed by the coming of the Son of man in the clouds of heaven. The proclamation of the judgment is an announcement of Christ’s second coming as at hand. And this proclamation is called the everlasting gospel. Thus the preaching of Christ’s second coming, the announcement of its nearness, is shown to be an essential part of the gospel message.” Christ’s Object Lessons, 226, 227.

Kingdom Preached – End Comes

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. V. 14

When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:). V. 15

Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. V. 16-18

And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! V. 19

But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day.” V. 20

WW II Strategic Warfare

Organization of the Field Forces: WW II

During WW II, "the German operational doctrine emphasized sweeping movements meant to destroy the enemy forces as quickly as possible.

This approach, referred to as Blitzkrieg, has been considered by many historians as having ancient prototypes practiced by Alexander...and Napoleon.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/German_Army_\(Wehrmacht\)), excerpts.

"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us:
for we are not ignorant of his devices."
2 Corinthians 2:11.

Lucifer uses the same operational doctrine as Hitler and other army leaders: emphasizing sweeping movements meant to destroy every soul.

As expressed in Daniel 11:24, "he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time."

With his army of fallen angels and human beings which have formed an alliance with him, Satan will attempt to deceive the very elect to the very time of the end.

Our only safety is found in the work of Christ and the Judgment in the Most Holy Place.

“But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.” Daniel 11:38.

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” Daniel 12:1

“I saw that Jesus would not leave the most holy place until every case was decided either for salvation or destruction, and that the wrath of God could not come until Jesus had finished His work in the most holy place, laid off His priestly attire, and clothed Himself with the garments of vengeance. Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and man, and God will keep silence no longer, but pour out His wrath on those who have rejected His truth. I saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead were separate and distinct, one following the other, also that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had not yet commenced. The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished His work in the sanctuary, He will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last plagues will be poured out.” Early Writings, 36.

Great Tribulation Such as Was not Before

“For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. V. 21

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. V. 22

Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. V. 23

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.” V. 24

Behold, I have told you before.” V. 25

For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. V. 28

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.” V. 29

From the Tribulation to the Signs in the Heavens

“Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.”

Matthew 24:26

“We can reach only one conclusion-that UFOs do not exist as tangible, manufactured, solid, stable machines. They are not real in the sense that this book is real. They do not require fuel or maintenance.

Often the witnesses have described the-ufonauts- as walking right through the sides of their craft like ghosts. And evidently that is what they are-ghosts, apparitions, a part of a massive cosmic put-on tailored to the space age, and with a motive more sinister than men have ever dreamed” George Vandeman (1916-2000).

- Chapter 27, 71.

“Now, I have no inside information whatever as to just how the enemy will try to pull off his second-coming stunt. But I don't think he is simply going to appear somewhere in a sceance. Or rent a hall and advertise a meeting. Or pick up a few million followers somewhere. How many people does that fool? Most of us would only smile and forget it. I do not know if a space ship will be involved in this final hoax. I do not have that information. But I ask you, Would an enemy so intelligent, so cunning, so angry, and so desperate, fail to take advantage of a build-up like this? Would he pass by such a conditioning of minds and simply turn up in Death Valley or on the streets of Minneapolis and announce that he is Christ? Would he bypass all the careful preparation?

Would he try to fool a generation like ours-so oriented to space travel as we are, and so saturated with talk of UFOs-without any tie whatever to those things which fill so many minds? Hardly! Why all the buildup? Why the decades, and even centuries, of orientation to the idea of ships from out there? Why the ready network of sensitives and contactees with their part already rehearsed? It seems incredible to me that all these, so prominent in the preparation, should be left out when the show runs for real. The world today is a pushover for a space-related deception. The cults, ready to believe anything that smacks of the supernatural, are already in the bag. And those who have scoffed at the saucers and the prophets and the ghosts are just as easily snared. For their scoffing has left them unprepared.

They find out too late that devils can work miracles after all. Who is left? Who is safe? Not very many. Only those who have read the Book, and believed it more than their eyes and their ears-even when the storm seemed to be sweeping everything stable away. One discerning writer, many years ago, described that critical day: “As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ.... Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation.

The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air, 'Christ has come! Christ has come! The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands, and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed his disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Savior uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims to have changed the [law of God].... This is the strong, almost overmastering delusion.” [The Great Controversy, 624], Ibid, 75.

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“Christ has given signs of His coming. He declares that we may know when He is near, even at the doors. He says of those who see these signs, “This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.”

These signs have appeared. Now we know of a surety that the Lord’s coming is at hand.

“Heaven and earth shall pass away,” He says, “but My words shall not pass away.”

The Desire of Ages, 632.

Signs of the End of the World Matthew 24:30-34

Sign of the Son of Man in Heaven

“And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. V. 30

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. V. 35

Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh. V. 36

So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. V. 37

Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.” V. 38

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“The apostle Paul warned the church not to look for the coming of Christ in his day. “That day shall not come,” he says, “except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed.” 2 Thessalonians 2:3. Not till after the great apostasy, and the long period of the reign of the “man of sin,” can we look for the advent of our Lord. The “man of sin,” which is also styled “the mystery of iniquity,” “the son of perdition,” and “that wicked,” represents the papacy, which, as foretold in prophecy, was to maintain its supremacy for 1260 years.

This period ended in 1798. The coming of Christ could not take place before that time. Paul covers with his caution the whole of the Christian dispensation down to the year 1798. It is this side of that time that the message of Christ’s second coming is to be proclaimed.... No such message has ever been given in past ages. Paul, as we have seen, did not preach it; he pointed his brethren into the then far-distant future for the coming of the Lord. The Reformers did not proclaim it.

Martin Luther placed the judgment about three hundred years in the future from his day. But since 1798 the book of Daniel has been unsealed, knowledge of the prophecies has increased, and many have proclaimed the solemn message of the judgment near.”
The Great Controversy, 356, 357.

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“Who shall be able to stand?”
Revelation 6:17.

“When temptations assail you, when care, perplexity, and darkness seem to surround your soul, look to the place where you last saw the light. Rest in Christ’s love and under His protecting care.... Entering into communion with the Saviour, we enter the region of peace.” The Ministry of Healing, 250, 1905.

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

“For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”
Hebrews 4:3

How to be Able to Stand?

“We must labor to have sound bodies and strong minds that are not easily enfeebled, minds that look beyond self to the cause and result of every movement made. Then we are in a fair way to endure hardness as good soldiers. We need minds that can see difficulties and go through with them with the wisdom that comes from God, that can wrestle with hard problems and conquer them.

The hardest problem is to crucify self, to endure hardness in spiritual experiences, training the soul by severe discipline. This will not, perhaps, bring the very best satisfaction at the first, but the aftereffect will be peace and happiness.”

1 Mind Character and Personality, 13.1.

Eighteenth Decree: There Shall be Signs

Meaning of: Entering Into His Rest

“As through Jesus we enter into rest, heaven begins here. We respond to His invitation, Come, learn of Me, and in thus coming we begin the life eternal. Heaven is a ceaseless approaching to God through Christ.

The longer we are in the heaven of bliss, the more and still more of glory will be opened to us; and the more we know of God, the more intense will be our happiness. As we walk with Jesus in this life, we may be filled with His love, satisfied with His presence. All that human nature can bear, we may receive here....

....But what is this compared with the hereafter? There “are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple: and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.” Revelation 7:15-17.” The Desire of Ages, 331.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”
Matthew 11:28-30.
