"Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret." Ephesians 5:11, 12."

"It was to accommodate the Christian worship to the minds of a people who practiced these things that the bishops gave to the Christian ordinances the name of mysteries. The Lord's supper was made the greater mystery, baptism the lesser....Therefore, before the second century [150 AD] was half gone, before the last of the apostles had been dead forty years, this apostasy, this working of the mystery of iniquity, had so largely spread over both the East and the West, that it is literally true that "a large part, therefore, of the Christian observances and institutions even in this century, had the aspect of the pagan mysteries. Nor is this all.... The worship of the sun [by then] had become universal. These apostates not being content with so much of the sun worship as appeared in the celebration of the mysteries, adopted the heathen custom of worshiping toward the East.... and of the Day of the Sun [Sun-day] as a festival day. To such an extent were the forms of sun worship practiced in this apostasy, that before the close of the second century the heathen themselves charged these so-called Christians with worshiping the sun."
Mosheim." The Two Republics, A.T. Jones, 211, 212. – Slide 9.

- Falling Away – From Passover to Easter Sunday – Slides 10 – 14

- Please Read:

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day [Coming of Christ] shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.” 2 Thessalonians 2:3, 4.

“For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. And also of your own selves shall men arise speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.” Acts 20:29, 30.

- The Falling Away: From Passover to Easter Sunday

“From Rome there came now another addition to the sun-worshipping apostasy. The first Christians being mostly Jews, continued to celebrate the Passover in remembrance of the death of Christ, the true Passover; and this was continued among those who from among the Gentiles had turned to Christ. Accordingly the celebration was always on the Passover day -- the fourteenth day of the first month [Leviticus 23:5]. Rome, however, and from her all the West, adopted the day of the sun as the day of this celebration. According to the Eastern custom, the celebration, being on the fourteenth day of the month, would of course fall on different days of the week [when compared to the Roman Julian calendar] as the years revolved.

The rule of Rome was that the celebration must always be on a Sunday -- the Sunday nearest to the fourteenth day of the first month of the Jewish year. And if the fourteenth day of that month of the Jewish year should be on Sunday, then the celebration was not to be held on that day, but upon the next Sunday. One reason of this was not only to be as like heathen as possible, but to be as unlike the Jews as possible: this, in order not only to facilitate the "conversion" of the heathen by conforming to their customs, but also by pandering to their spirit of contempt and hatred of the Jews. It was upon this point that the bishop of Rome made his first open attempt at absolutism.” The Two Republics, A.T. Jones, 213. – Slide 10.

- The Falling Away – Section II – Fall of Babylon – Slides 15 – 23

- Please Read: Especially for the Last Days:

“Read the book of Daniel. Call up, point by point, the history of the kingdoms there represented. Behold statesmen, councils, powerful armies, and see how God wrought to abase the pride of men, and lay human glory in the dust. God alone is represented as great. In the vision of the prophet He is seen casting down one mighty ruler, and setting up another. He is revealed as the monarch of the universe, about to set up His everlasting kingdom—the Ancient of days, the living God, the Source of all wisdom, the Ruler of the present, the Revealer of the future. Read, and understand how poor, how frail, how short-lived, how erring, how guilty is man in lifting up his soul unto vanity.” 4BC 1166.4

“When the books of Daniel and Revelation are better understood, believers will have an entirely different religious experience. They will be given such glimpses of the open gates of heaven that heart and mind will be impressed with the character that all must develop in order to realize the blessedness which is to be the reward of the pure in heart.” TM 114.3 – Slide 17

- Question – The Falling Away – Fall of Babylon – Historically and Today
Q3. How significant is the Falling Away from 325 AD to today according to the prophecies of the 4 Beasts of Daniel 7 and the Beast of Revelation 13?

“The election of Cardinal Robert Prevost as the new Pope, who will be known as Pope Leo XIV, is a significant event, especially given his American origins and his extensive work in Latin America, particularly Peru. While some were initially surprised by the choice of an American, his multicultural and multilingual background, coupled with his leadership and listening skills, has garnered praise from around the world.”
