- Preparation for Symposium I – International Court of Justice
- Understanding the United Nations International Court of Justice

“The International Court of Justice – ICJ (French: La Cour Internationale de Justice) is an international organization. It is the main judicial organ or branch of the United Nations. In short, International Court of Justice is ICJ; sometimes people call it the World Court. Established in 1945, ICJ has its headquarters at The Hague, in the Netherlands...The International Court of Justice is different from the International Criminal Court as it deals only with States (countries) matters” Slide 10.
- The United Nations International Court of Justice – ICJ

“The International Court of Justice has two major functions. Firstly, it settles disputes, which the member countries may bring before it. Secondly, it may give its opinions on legal matters.” Slide 10.
- The United Nations International Criminal Court – ICC

“Trying individuals for genocide, war crimes, crimes against humanity, and aggression. The International Criminal Court (ICC) is the world's first permanent international criminal court, which is established and governed by the Rome Statute. It is located in The Hague, in the Netherlands. The adoption of the Rome Statute in 1998 was a historic step, reflecting the determination of the world community to put an end to impunity and to contribute to the prevention of crimes which threaten the peace, security and well-being of the world. The ICC has jurisdiction over the most serious crimes of concern to the international community: genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes committed after 1 July 2002.” Slide 11.
- The United Nations International Covenant – ICCPR

“International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) - Paragraph 48 states: Prohibitions of displays of lack of respect for a religion or other belief system, including blasphemy laws, are incompatible with the Covenant, except in the specific circumstances envisaged in article 20, paragraph 2, of the Covenant. Such prohibitions must also comply with the strict requirement of article 19, paragraph 3, as well as such articles as 2, 5, 17, 18 and 26. θ Thus, for instance, it would be impermissible for any such laws to discriminate in favor of or against one or certain religions or belief systems, or their adherents over another, or religious believers over non-believers. Nor would it be permissible for such prohibitions to be used to prevent or punish criticism of religious leaders or commentary on religious doctrine and tenets of faith. Article 20, paragraph 2 of the Covenant states: Any advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence shall be prohibited by law” Slide 13.

Question

Q1. Why is it important at this time to be prepared to face the International Court of Justice – ICJ, the International Criminal Court – ICC and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights – ICCPR which are all under the United Nations?

Answer

A1. Because some of us will be called to answer for our faith before magistrates in high places. While the Bible does assure us that we are to “take no thought how or what thing [we] shall answer, or what [we] shall say: For the Holy Ghost shall teach [us] in the same hour what [we] ought to say” “this preparation [we] should make [now] by diligently studying the word of God [and the Spirit of Prophecy] and striving to conform [our] lives to its precepts.”

Question

Q2. What is the difference between the ICJ – ICC – ICCPR?

Question

Q3. What is the United Nations Human Rights Council – UNHRC?

Answer

A3. United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) The United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) is the United Nations System intergovernmental body responsible for strengthening the promotion and protection of human rights around the world. Its 47 seats are filled by member states elected for three-year terms.” Slides 12 – 14 – 16.

Question

Q4. Who wrote the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights?

Answer

A4. “We begin with “ALL Human Beings...”, which brings in the significant principle of Universality, which is closely related to Synthesis. Both energies are distinctive of the Aquarian age. One way of capturing the key insights of universality and equality that lie at the heart of the first article is summed up in a concept that Alice Bailey said should be taught to every child: namely, the value of the individual and the fact of the One Humanity.”

The United Nations was founded by occult members and has a flat earth map on their official logo. There is a Satanic library inside the United Nations building called Lucis Trust. It was founded by Alice Bailey who was a new age occultist. The title page of Alice Bailey’s book, ‘Initiation, Human and Solar’ was originally printed in 1922, and clearly shows the publishing house as: Lucifer Publishing Coln, 1923. Bailey changed the name to Lucis Trust, because Lucifer Publishing revealed the true nature of the New Age Movement too clearly.

Note: “Alice Ann Bailey (16 June 1880 – 15 December 1949) was a British and American writer. She wrote about 25 books on Theosophy and was one of the first writers to use the term New Age. She was born Alice La Trobe-Bateman, in Manchester, England[1] and moved to the United States in 1907, where she spent most of her life as a writer and teacher.

Bailey's works, written between 1919 and 1949, describe a wide-ranging neo-theosophical system of esoteric thought covering such topics as how spirituality relates to the Solar System, meditation, healing, spiritual psychology, the destiny of nations, and prescriptions for society in general. She described the majority of her work as having been telepathically dictated to her by a Master of Wisdom, initially referred to only as “the Tibetan” or by the initials “D.K.”, later identified as Djwal Khul. [Demon]

Her writings bore some similarity to those of Madame Blavatsky [Blavatsky connected this ancient wisdom religion to Hermetic philosophy, a worldview in which everything in the universe is identified as an emanation from the Godhead] and are among the teachings often referred to as “Ageless Wisdom”. Though Bailey's writings differ in some respects from the Theosophy of Blavatsky, they have much in common with it. She wrote on religious themes, including Christianity, though her writings are fundamentally different from many aspects of Christianity or other orthodox religions. Her vision of a unified society included a global “spirit of religion” different from traditional religious forms and including the concept of the Age of Aquarius.”

• Sample Facts – Fictive Scenario

1. The defendant was having a Bible Study on XXXX
2. The meeting was held in her home.
3. One of the participants took offense at what was taught.
4. The study was on the Biblical versus the State Calendar.
5. The participant left the meeting very quickly.

6. About 20 minutes later, a police officer knocked at the defendant's door.
7. Within 15 minutes, all the participants were sent home by numerous armed police officers. Their names were noted for further interrogation.
8. The defendant was arrested under the International Criminal Court – ICC and the United Nations International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights – ICCPR.
9. The charges were: advocacy of national religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence prohibited by the New International Sunday Law Legislation.

The Applicant – ICC Prosecutor swore to these facts in affidavit form “on the stand” in front of the judge at trial. They were disputed by the Defendant.

- Sample Arguments/Statements/Submissions

1. The Biblical Calendar is a Luni-Solar Barley Harvest as evidenced by the Bible, Astronomy, Chronology and History.
2. The State Calendar is a Solar calendar and differs greatly from the Biblical Calendar as evidenced by History.
3. The Defendant has investigated these subjects for years before the present International Sunday Law was enacted as evidenced by material in her possession, media participation such as 4 Websites, Facebook account, multiple videos on U-Tube and her own publications.
4. At such time, her freedom of speech was granted as well as her religious liberty under the Charter of Rights and Freedoms of Canada, 1982 under Fundamental Freedom Article 2 and her God-given right as a free citizen.
5. Henceforth, the Defendant claims the right to a fair trial in order to prove that her teaching does not advocate national religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence prohibited by the New International Sunday Law Legislation.
6. The Applicant did question and challenge the Defendant's claim. He did argue the facts presented by the Defendant but the Defendant was allowed a self-represented trial as no lawyer would stand against the ICC on her behalf.

Once the “evidence” are heard at trial, the Defendant will be able to “argue” (in a period of the trial referred to as “closing submissions”) that her teaching was Biblical yet will be challenged by many witnesses brought by the Applicant on many subjects of the Defendant's teaching. A final decision will be taken by the ICC. If found guilty the Defendant could face the death penalty. – Slide 38.
