The Mazzaroth – Book of Creation – The Heavens Declare

“In Psalm 19, the first part is occupied with the Revelation of God written in the Heavens [concrete – Laws of Nature], and the latter part with the Revelation of God written in the Word [abstract – Universal Laws].

This is the simple explanation of this beautiful Psalm. This is why its two subjects are brought together. It has often perplexed many why there should be that abrupt departure in verse 7— “The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.” The fact is, there is nothing abrupt in it, and it is no departure. It is simply the transition to the second of the two great Revelations which are thus placed in juxtaposition.

The first is the Revelation of the Creator, El, אֱלֹהִים in His Works, while the second is the Revelation of the Covenant of Jehovah, יְהוָה in His Word. And it is noteworthy that while in the first half of the Psalm, El is named only once, in the latter half Jehovah is named seven times, the last being threefold (LORD, Rock, and Redeemer) concluding the Psalm. - Preparation – Symposium II – Mazzaroth – Vol. I – Slides 12-16
The Mazzaroth –

“After the Revelation came to be written down in the Scriptures, there was not the same need for the preservation of the Heavenly Volume. And after the nations had lost the original meaning of the pictures, they invented a meaning out of the vain imagination of the thoughts of their hearts, [namely, Astrology – Spiritualism]. The Greek Mythology is an interpretation of only some of the signs and constellations after their true meaning had been forgotten. It is popularly believed that Bible truth is an evolution from, or development of, the ancient religions of the world. But the fact is that they themselves are a corruption and perversion of primitive truth!" Slide 13.
