The Word of God and The Spirit of Prophecy Declare:

- “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.” Matthew 28:19.
- “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.” John 1:
- “And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.” 1 Timothy 1:16.

- "From the days of eternity the Lord Jesus Christ was one with the Father:" Desire of Ages p. 19.
- "Of the Spirit Jesus said, He shall glorify Me." The Saviour came to glorify the Father by the demonstration of His love; so the Spirit was to glorify Christ by revealing His grace to the world. The very image of God is to be reproduced in humanity. The honor of God, the honor of Christ, is involved in the perfection of the character of His people." Desire of Ages, 671.
- "In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, man is laid in the watery grave, buried with Christ in baptism and raised from the water to live the new life of loyalty to God. The three great powers in heaven are witnesses; they are invisible but present.... The work is laid out before every soul that has acknowledged his faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, and has become a receiver of the pledge from the three persons – the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. MS 57, 1900.

Arianism Falsehood:

- "Arianism is the belief that God, the Father, is the "only true God," who possessed life and creative power inherently and originally within Himself. Arians declare that He, alone was and is the only Source of all other life in the universe."
- "Arianism proposes that Jesus Christ was not a "true God," from all eternity because there was a time when He did not exist, and that He was brought forth from the "bosom" of the Father, and was given life before the creation of anything else in the universe."
- "Arianism proposes that The Holy Spirit is not a person, but an influence which flows out from the Father and Jesus Christ."
Final Deliverance in the Covenants of God, P. 65.
- Jehovah Witnesses and Mormons adhere to Arianism.
- Mainstream Christianity including SDA adhere to the Three Persons of the Godhead. Roman Catholicism adheres to the Trinity, which is not to be equated to the Three Persons of the Godhead in its understanding.
- Question 1
The only way to counteract Falsehood is by declaring the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. Add more quotes which demonstrate that the Godhead: Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one. Explain your choice.

- Question 1

Ask the Participants to read and explain these quotes:

"The brain nerves that connect with the whole system are the only medium through which heaven communicates with man and affects his inmost life." Education p. 209.

"The will is the governing power in the nature of man bringing all other faculties under his sway. It is through the nerves that the orders of the will are to communicate with the various parts of the body and there are arbitrarily carried out." Education, p. 209.

"Whatever hinders the circulation of the electric current in the nervous system thus weakening the vital powers and lessening mental susceptibility makes it more difficult to arouse the moral nature." Education, 289.

- Question

Ask the Participants to read and explain these quotes:

"Where once was written only the character of God, the knowledge of good, was now written also the character of Satan, the knowledge of evil." Education, p. 26.

"The infinite value of the sacrifice required for our redemption reveals the fact that sin is a tremendous evil. Through sin the whole human organism is deranged, the mind is perverted, the imagination corrupted. Sin has degraded the faculties of the soul. Temptations from without find an answering chord within the heart, and the feet turn imperceptibly toward evil." Ministry of Healing, p. 451.

"The result of the eating of the tree of knowledge of good and evil is manifest in every man's experience. There is in his nature a bent to evil, a force which, unaided, he cannot resist. To withstand this force, to attain that ideal which in his inmost soul he accepts as alone worthy, he can find help in but one power. That power is Christ. Co-operation with that power is man's greatest need." Education p. 29.

"It is a law both of the intellectual and the spiritual nature, that by beholding, we become changed. The mind gradually adapts itself to the subjects upon which it is allowed to dwell. It becomes assimilated to that which it is accustomed to love and reverence. Man will never rise higher than his standard of purity or goodness or truth. If self is his loftiest ideal, he will never attain to anything more exalted. Rather, he will constantly sink lower and lower. The grace of God alone has power to exalt man. Left to himself, his course must inevitably be downward." The Great Controversy, p. 555.
