- “And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.” 1 Timothy 3:16.
- “To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.” Colossians 1:27.

- “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word WAS GOD! John 1:1.
- “Christ was God essentially, and in the highest sense. " He was with God from all eternity, God over all, blessed forevermore." The Review and Herald, April 5, 1906. p. 8.
- “The wages of sin is eternal death. No one but the eternal God could meet this threat and guarantee eternal life. The "second death" of Revelation 20:6 is none other than eternal annihilation!. Who could die such a death for another? No one but a Self-existent One, a God in the highest sense with life original, unborrowed and underived could die such a death and come forth to live again, victorious and claim to be the "resurrection and the life forevermore." Final Deliverance, 74.
- Question 1
 - According to the TERMS of the Everlasting Covenant and the promise of Christ in Genesis 3:15, after Adam and Eve broke the Covenant, Christ, the Second Person of the Godhead, fulfilled the part ‘Disobey and Die’ on our behalf.
 - Why is the work accomplished by Christ at the cross must be followed by the work in the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place? What is your understanding on these Everlasting Truth?
- Answer 1.
 - Draw your answers on your knowledge of the Sanctuary, more specifically of the work of the Most Holy Place at this time.

- Ask the Participants to read and explain these quotes:
 - "The obedience of Christ to his Father was the same obedience that is required of man. Man cannot overcome Satan's temptations except as divine power works through humanity. The Lord Jesus came to our world, not to reveal what God in his own divine person could do, but what he could do through humanity.

- Through faith man is to be a partaker of the divine nature, and to overcome every temptation wherewith he is beset. It was the Majesty of heaven who became a man, who humbled himself to our human nature; it was he who was tempted in the wilderness and who endured the contradiction of sinners against himself." Sign of the Times, April 10, 1893.
- "From eternal ages it was God's purpose that every created being, from the bright and holy seraph to man, should be a temple for the indwelling of the Creator. Because of sin, humanity ceased to be a temple for God. Darkened and defiled by evil, the heart of man no longer revealed the glory of the Divine One. But by the incarnation of the Son of God, the purpose of Heaven is fulfilled. God dwells in humanity, and through saving grace the heart of man becomes again His temple." Desire of Ages, p. 161.

• Sin Although Forgiven and Forsaken Leave Scars in the Mind

- "The thoughts, allowed to run in a low channel, soon pervert all the powers of the being...The greatest evil of it all is the permanent effect that these things have upon the character...They wound their own souls, and through their lifetime will carry the scars. The evildoer may see his sins and repent; God may pardon the transgressor; but the powers of discernment, which ought ever to be kept keen and sensitive to distinguish between the sacred and the common, are in a great measure destroyed." Testimonies Vol. 8, p.66.
- "The blood of Christ, while it was to release the repentant sinner from the condemnation of the law, was not to cancel the sin; it would stand on record in the sanctuary until the final atonement; so in the type the blood of the sin offering removed the sin from the penitent, but it rested in the sanctuary until the Day of Atonement." Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 357.
- "Man may grow up into Christ, his living head. It is not the work of a moment, but that of a growing daily in the divine life, he will not attain to the full stature of a perfect man in Christ until his probation ceases." Testimonies Vol. 4, p. 367.
