- Complete Fulfillment – Everlasting Covenants – Moral Perfection
- Questions – How Many Can You Answer?
“For the last generation, which considers, not resurrection, but translation, there is a dilemma and many questions:
 - How will they qualify for the final "seal of the living God"?
 - How will the Latter Rain of the Holy Spirit prepare them to live through the seven last plagues without a Mediator?
 - Will the people of God be sealed sinless, "without fault before the throne of God" (Revelation 14:5), or will they be sealed with "a law of sin in their members" and an inherent bent to evil with all its clamoring appetites and perverse lusts still at war against the law of God?

- When will the "complete fulfillment" of the covenant occur so that the laws of God will be permanently, completely written in the minds and hearts of God's people so that sin will be completely "blotted out?"
- Will it be at the time of the translation of the body, or will it be at the seal of God in the mind?
- How will the last generation be prepared to stand through the seven last plagues without a Mediator? (Revelation 15:8).
- Answers to these questions were not significant nor pertinent to past generations. But as the gospel and the Investigative Judgment draws to its close, and as the forces of evil emerge to oppose the laws and the people of God, these questions will attain to immediate urgency and the Lord will give His people understanding so that by their faith and cooperation with Him, His work for them will be complete.
- Answers to the above questions are found in prophetic Scriptures and in inspired writings available to us now." The Final Deliverance, 95.
